8-man Football Sharing Agreement

This sharing agreement is between the Essex Community School District hereinafter referred to as Essex, and the South Page Community School District hereinafter referred to as South Page, and collectively referred to as the Parties.

Purpose of the Agreement: This sharing agreement is for both parties to cooperatively share and 8-man football program for the 2018 and 2019 football seasons. The sharing agreement will cover the high school and junior high school football programs.

Official Team Name: The Parties will establish Essex-South Page as the official name of the football team for the sharing agreement.

Term: This agreement is for the period of the 2018 and 2019 football seasons, which include the preseason preparation and the postseason play and honors for the next district football cycle.

Coaching contracts: Essex will be responsible for the head football coach's contract. South Page will be responsible for the assistant football coach's contract. The Parties will each be responsible for a junior high coaching contract. Iowa certified coaches will fill all coaching contracts. Volunteer coaching will be approved by the respective board of education if recommended by superintendents of both districts.

Facilities and Equipment: Essex will supply the all the facilities and equipment for practice and scheduled contest. The uniforms will bear the Essex mascot name Trojan since the uniforms were purchased new in 2017.

Transportation: South Page will transport students to and from Essex for practice and games. Essex will transport students from Essex to all away contests and back to Essex. Consideration of travel to events should be considered to make travel efficient.

Officials: Essex will schedule and pay for the officials for the scheduled contests.

Liability Coverage: Both parties will communicate with respective insurance companies to cover liabilities of the students involved with the shared football program.

Note: This agreement is for football only with the option for future discussion about football and other activities.
